

ECOLES Economic and Consumer Literacy in European Schools

Special Points of Interest:

Project title:

Economic and Consumer Literacy in European Schools

Reference number:

2020-1-BG1-KA201-079100

Implementation Period

01-10-2020 - 31-03-2022

The Erasmus+ Project ECOLES - Economic and Consumer Literacy in European Schools Education aims to enhance students' skills and knowledge in dealing with the emerging needs of the digitalised market and the complexity of economic and consumer matters.

Representatives from all partner countries attended the final transnational partners meeting (online) hosted by Greece on 09 March 2022. During the meeting, the partners discussed all the intellectual outputs developed and the concluding administrative responsibilities of the consortium.

During February and March 2022, the partnership has organised local workshops in Primary and Secondary Schools in all partner countries to test the learning materials of the project. Students from Bulgaria, Cyprus, Greece, Poland, Estonia, and Ireland will be introduced to the ECOLES educational modules, and their skills and competencies will be assessed through the virtual consumer game. All students will give their feedback on the developed materials and teachers will be encouraged to integrate all the learning materials created in the framework of the ECOLES project in their curricula and motivate students to be more aware of their rights and responsibilities as consumers.
